FEATURED AUTHORS

Presentations & Book Signings

Tracy K. Smith
Saturday, July 16
West Las Vegas Library

Pulitzer Prize-winning Poet and U.S. Poet Laureate (2017 – 2019)

Tracy K. Smith received the 2012 Pulitzer Prize in poetry for her third book of poems, "Life on Mars." The collection draws upon the genre of science fiction in considering who we humans are and what the vast universe holds for us. Smith served two terms as Poet Laureate of the United States, during which time she traveled across America, hosting poetry readings and conversations in rural communities. She edited the anthology "American Journal: Fifty Poems for Our Time" during her laureateship and launched the American Public Media podcast "The Slowdown." In March 2021, she was voted into the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

Clark County Library

Pulitzer Prize-winning Essayist & Author

Hilton Als began contributing to The New Yorker in 1989, writing pieces for "The Talk of the Town." His reviews are not simply reviews; they are provocative contributions to the discourse on theatre, race, class, sexuality, and identity in America. He is currently working on a new book titled "I Don't Remember," on his experiences in New York during the AIDS era. Als won the 2017 Pulitzer Prize for Criticism and the 2018 Langston Hughes Medal, among numerous other honors. In 2019, he partnered with WNYC's Greene Space on a limited podcast series titled "The Way We Live Now: Hilton Als and America's Poets."

Please go to LVCCLD.org/SummerChallenge for details and many more events!

Event times & dates are subject to change. Seating for all events is limited & will be on a first-come, first-served basis.
