

Experience AANHPI Cuisine, Art, Performances & More with the Library

May is Asian American & Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander Heritage Month, and the Library District is celebrating the people, perspectives, food, cultural influences, and rich history of the AANHPI community. Visit our website to find FREE AANHPI Heritage Month events and programs at a branch near you, plus selections you can check out from our library collection, and fun, educational, and entertaining online resources that you can browse 24/7.

Check Out "Tastes Like War" & Join the Big Library Read - May 3-17

Library District cardholders of all ages can take part in the 2023 Big Library Read, the world's largest digital book club. From May 3-17, book lovers around the world can enjoy Grace M. Cho's evocative memoir, 'Tastes Like War', by downloading the eBook or eAudiobook formats with no waitlists! All you need is your library card to access our digital collection on the Libby app or by visiting LasVegas.Overdrive.com. Readers can then join the online discussion to share their thoughts with fellow literary lovers.

Look to the Library for Mental Health & Wellness Resources

The library offers a variety of in-person and online resources to support your well-being! Just a few examples:

- On May 10, we partner with the National Alliance on Mental Illness of Southern Nevada (NAMI) for In Our Own Voice: A NAMI Mental Health Workshop at the East Las Vegas Library.
- The Windmill Library will host a series of workshops, classes, and presentations on May 27, which is Mental Health Day.
- For kids and teens ages 12-17, the Sunrise Library will teach you how to make your own self-care kit at the popular arts & crafts workshop All in My Feels on May 3.
- Explore a variety of online resources, plus books selected by our library staff on our website's Health & Wellness page.
