Calling all young artists! Entries are now being accepted for the 2023 Teen animeFEST logo design contest. The winning design will be featured on all the Library District's promotional materials in our 25 branches, and on our website and social media channels. Entries must be received by August 31, 2023. This design contest is open to all youth in grades 6-12. For more details, visit our website.

And mark your calendars on November 18 for the Teen animeFEST at Sahara West Library!

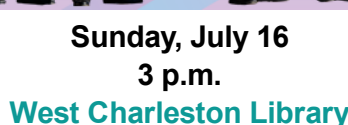

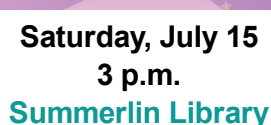

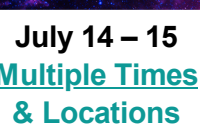

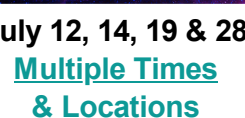

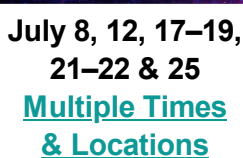

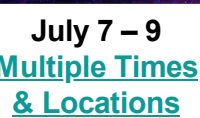

The Library District is excited to offer self-service 3D printing! We are committed to providing our customers with access to new technologies and guiding them through the process from design to finished print. Our DIY 3D printers can be reserved FREE of charge at 10 of our library branches with a valid library card in good standing. Seven other branches provide staff-managed 3D printing. Prior to using our 3D Printing Zones for the first time, customers must undergo training with library staff. For more details and locations, visit the 3D Printing page on our website.

Teachers can save big on books for their classrooms at our Teacher Book Sale on July 29 at the East Las Vegas Library from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Browse hundreds of gently used books, including accelerated reader titles for as little at 25 cents each.

Seating in our venues is on a first-come, first-served basis and may be limited. Please visit our website for the most updated program information.
