

Celebrate Dia De Los Muertos with Music, Dance & Family Fun

Join us at the East Las Vegas Library for the annual Dia De Los Muertos Festival on November 4! This family-friendly event will feature live mariachi music and traditional ballet folklorico performances, plus free food, face painting, games, crafts, balloon animals, and a chance to meet community partners. Enter our raffle or try the loteria for your chance to win prizes!

Everything You Want in a Comic Book Festival! And It's FREE!

The not-to-be-missed Vegas Valley Comic Book Festival returns for its 15th year at the Clark County Library on November 4, with comics, cosplay, workshops, and so much more! Shop our Vendor Courtyard filled with comic book stores and craft makers, then meet and support local and national creators in the Artist Alley. Dress up in your finest cosplay (just leave your weapons at home) and enjoy crafts, food trucks, a movie, and music.

Go Behind the Scenes of Las Vegas Shows & Productions

Fourteen local writers and artists explore what Las Vegas is really like "behind the curtain" in "Feather Shows: Las Vegas Writers on Movies, TV, and Other Spectacles" on October 19 at Clark County Library. Through a collection of original essays and comics, these authors will take you on a journey to locations that tourists rarely see. Admission is free but seating may be limited.

Donate Those Gently Used Women's Suits at the Library

Now through November 1, you can donate your gently used professional clothing and help local women prepare for career opportunities and succeed in the workplace. Donation boxes for the Women United Suit Drive are now located in the following participating branches: Centennial Hills Library, Clark County Library, Sahara West Library, Spring Valley Library, Sunrise Library, West Las Vegas Library, and Windmill Library.
