

Celebrate Native American Heritage Month!

Learn about the Hopi story of creation through music and dance from seven-time Hoop Dance World Champion Derrick Suwaima Davis. Derrick creates intricate patterns using rattan hoops, while keeping time to the singing and drumming of Ryon Polequaptewa. Performances will be held at Clark County Library, Windmill Library, Centennial Hills Library, Enterprise Library, and Moapa Town Library. Free and open to the public, and all ages are welcome. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis and may be limited. For dates and times, please visit our event calendar.

A Crash Course in Following Your Dreams with Tony Weaver, Jr., Creator of The UnCommons

Manga creator and entrepreneur Tony Weaver, Jr., will share his unique perspective with teens at Centennial Hills Library on December 5. As CEO of Weird Enough, with 800,000 readers, Tony has made history as the first comic writer selected to the Forbes "30 Under 30," and was named a Champion for Change by CNN. Free and open to the public. Learn more on our website.

Your Gift to the Library Supports Free and Accessible Programming

Giving Tuesday is a global movement that encourages people to donate for the good of their communities. Giving Tuesday takes place annually on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving, and you can have an impact locally by donating to the Library District Foundation. One hundred percent of your donation will benefit library programming, such as tutoring, STEAM, literacy, arts and humanities, classes for seniors and so much more. You can donate to the Library Foundation on Giving Tuesday November 28 – or any day of the year – by visiting the Foundation Donation page on our website.
