Agenda (Item III.)

Trustee Waugh moved to approve the Agenda as proposed. There was no opposition and the motion carried.

Update on the District's financial operations. (For discussion only.) No action will be taken. (Item IV.) Chair Rogers introduced CFO Floresto Cabias. Cabias stated he was expecting Ryan Kenter with Crescent Growth Capital for discussion regarding the New Market Tax Credit Program, but he had not yet arrived. Cabias continued and said, as a refresher, these are the nonprofit organizations that receive federal allocation to invest in distressed communities like our community in the Historic Westside. We had the opportunity to take some of these entities on tours of our libraries and show them the West Las Vegas site to let them know what they are investing in and to see the community benefits that are going to be provided by this new library. Mr. Kenter will discuss his conversations with the community development entities, as there are a number of them that are interested in our West Las Vegas project. He will go over the time line, where we stand now and what the schedule looks like going forward.

Trustee Sanchez asked if it would be possible to get a one-page timeline after the meeting and Cabias answered, absolutely.

Ryan Kenter arrived at the meeting and Cabias introduced him and turned the presentation over to Kenter.

Kenter stated he had been speaking with Community Development Entities (CDEs) over the last two months and in September the allocation awards were announced. A number of CDEs who have an interest in the West Las Vegas Library won awards. The first one would be Enterprise Bank. They are a CDE out of St. Louis, MO. They are going to committee tomorrow for between 5 and 10 million in allocation. Kenter reiterated that we are looking at trying to get 30 million in allocation on this project. Given the interest we have, we may be able to upsize that sum. He continued stating that Clearinghouse, a CDE on the West Coast, which also participated in the Mesquite transaction, will also do up to 10 million. Potentially, right there, it could be as high as 20 million between the two CDEs mentioned.

Kenter added Accion Opportunity Fund, out of San Jose, CA are looking at this project for 10.5 million. They were hosted on our site visit last month. Accion has been asking a number of follow up questions and the process seems to be going well. Finally, McCormick Baron Salazar, based in St. Louis, MO might have up to 7.5 million for us. Kenter stated all of this is in flux right now and hoping this settles down after Thanksgiving.

On the investor side, where the investor CDE is the banks who buy the tax credit, we have two leaders, Chase, who also did the Mesquite deal, and Capital One, who did the East Las Vegas project. Chase is being very aggressive. They are going to their investment committee to get approval now. The hope is that they could bring in 3 to 4 million of allocation. Kenter noted that typically bank allocation does not come with CDE fees, so the 3 million dollar bank allocation is probably equivalent to a 5 million nonbank allocation. Capital One is also very interested but are taking a bit more of a wait and see approach.

Cabias asked that before we go further, could Kenter give us a general overview of what these dollars mean, the net benefit impact? Could you explain that we get a certain percentage of that allocation that is contributed towards construction of the West Las Vegas Library? Kenter responded, we tell sponsors that on a 10 million dollar allocation, they can expect a net benefit from the New Market Tax Credits of about 15%, so 1.5 million. On a 10 million dollar deal, rather than spending 10 million, the library would have to spend 8.5 million, and then the tax credit equity or net benefit covers that other 1.5 million. Kenter continued, when you are talking about 30 million in allocation, that net benefit on 15% is about 4.5 million. We might be able to do a little bit better than that but will be conservative up front and see where the CDE fees come in and go from there.

Cabias asked what is the total now based on the interest that you just described to us from these CDEs? Kenter replied that if Enterprise comes in at 10, I think Clearinghouse could be at 10 as well. There is 20, and Accion is at 10.5, that's 30.5. If Chase comes in at 3, that's 33.5. That's probably where we are right now. There could be an additional CDE or two that comes in with some additional allocation. Kenter also mentioned that between predevelopment costs and FF&E and so forth, we do have the potential to go higher, but our goal was always 25 to 30 million. And by the way, in terms of timeline, the application for the next round came out last week.

Kenter said, more importantly, the threshold deadline came out. That is when the awards are announced. The Treasury says you have until a certain date to get 20% of the award that we just gave you out into closed deals and that date is March 21, 2024. Kenter went on to say that the average amount of time it takes to close the deal from the time LOIs (Letters of Intent) and term sheets are executed to closing is typically 90 days.

Kenter added, part of the great interest in the library is that The Library District has done two deals before. The District knows how this works and frankly with Floresto, John and your team, you have the horsepower to get this done under that time frame, so that is certainly a good thing.

Cabias said, just to summarize, the 25 to 30 million dollars Ryan refers to as our goal is matching the cost of construction for the West Las Vegas Library project. Our current budget is $35 million. At our last meeting, General Services Director, John Vino pointed out that the budget could increase because of escalating construction costs up to 36 or 37 million dollars. Even if the cost of this project gets to 40 million dollars, which we do not expect, we are prepared to provide funding and finish construction, even at that dollar amount. With the New Markets Tax Credits, as Ryan is describing, we could go up to 40 million dollars if that is the cost of West Las Vegas. That would be 100% allocation and the maximum amount of New Markets funding we could receive. I just wanted to put that in context.

Moving on to investor banks, Kenter said with Chase and Capital One potentially at 3 to 4 million in allocation, I did want to mention to you that we are talking to a couple of other CDEs, who have participated in the Nevada State New Market Tax Credit program. For the Board's benefit, that is a program that essentially piggybacks off the federal program with the difference being that the tax credit goes to the state franchise tax liability. The interesting thing about this program is that deals cannot close until June 1, 2024. As I understand it, they have the 2-year look back period that the federal side does too. All of this to say that a couple of CDEs who participated in the state program, not the ones I mentioned, but other ones are looking at potentially participating in the state program. Our goal is to get the federal program done now and come back to the state program. We could possibly close the 30 million dollar deal now and also close another deal in the summer. This is because when you close a New Market Tax Credit deal, you have 12 months to spend those funds and you also have a 24 month look back period. Given the construction time frame, it puts us in line for the next round of allocation. Kenter said he talked with the Las Vegas CDE and they wanted to do this deal but their application did not go through successfully and they were very bummed out about that. Theoretically, if they win the next round, there may be some additional room. It can play out a number of ways. The great news is this project is getting a lot of interest from a lot of different people.

Cabias added that the FF&E or furniture, fixtures and equipment, is additional cost not part of the construction of the library itself. There are even more costs that would benefit from getting more allocation from these CDEs. Ryan and Crescent Grown Capital have made significant efforts in promoting and raising as much funds as possible for this project.

Cabias continued, just to confirm, some of these CDEs could be awarded funding in the next round, does this mean next fiscal year, meaning we could close 30 million dollars this fiscal year and raise more funds in the new fiscal year, say the summer of next year? Kenter agreed, saying we are putting projects in people's applications right now for the next round, so it is something to think about. Cabias asked if there were any questions from the Trustees?

Trustee Sanchez asked if the cost is more expensive because prices are going up or inflation, and we go up to 37 million, but then go under budget say at 35 million, is there a penalty or how does that work?

Kenter answered, I want to back up for a quick second. You mentioned 30 million, I am talking about 30 million in allocation authority. So when I talk about the net benefit on 30 million at 15%, being 4.5 million, the library would use 25.5 million of its own funds and combine that with the 4.5 million of the net benefit from the tax credits and that is how you get your 30 million dollar project. In the question of - is there a penalty, typically we have not seen a penalty basically because everything we are seeing is going over budget. But no, to answer your question, at least so far, everybody has been able to figure out a way to spend that money.

Cabias added it's probably not very common that an organization receives 100% of New Markets funding to match the cost of their project. Here at The Library District, for the West Las Vegas Library, there will probably be no shortage of costs that qualify for New Markets funding. The building itself could be around 35 million, and we talked about FF&E up to a million dollars of a brand new collection that would be provided to the new library. That is another cost that is eligible for New Market support. Kenter replied that is correct, it is eligible.

Cabias asked if there were any questions about the deadlines and none were asked.

Cabias asked Kenter to go over an example of the logistics with respect to the role that the Library District's Foundation plays. The District, as a sponsor of this program, would be transferring money over to the Foundation so they can play their role as the leverage lender. Can you cover that briefly? Kenter responded, let's say these CDEs, Accion, Enterprise, Clearinghouse and Chase have a combination as a group of 30 million in allocation. They send all of the LOIs and term sheets. The District executes them and we start closing. We go through checklists and run a preliminary model based off of the pricing and fees and, at the time of closing, this will show how much the leveraged lender, The Foundation, will need to have at closing. If 4.5 million is coming from New Market Tax Credits, 25.5 million needs to come from the Foundation. Whatever closing date we come up with, the Foundation will need to have in its possession that 25.5 million (example). It does not need to be there today, but it does on closing day.

Cabias added, I wanted to emphasize that for the Finance & Audit Committee, because this is something that impacts our budget. As we discussed in previous meetings, we have been well prepared to fund construction of the West Las Vegas Library project. We definitely have that money going to work in our investments accounts while it is waiting to be spent on construction or transfer to the Library District Foundation. Our budget in the Capital Projects Fund for the new library was based on our original goal of about 25 to 30 million dollars. Now that we know the potential is as much as 35 to 40 million dollars, we will need to raise the Capital Projects Fund expenditure budget so that the District can actually transfer funds up to 40 million dollars to the Foundation and be ready for closing. This will likely be an agenda item in January when we have more information.

Cabias continued, one more thing I want to cover is the engagement of Novogradac with the Library District Foundation. Novogradac is the CPA firm, the last member of our team, that will be going to work soon. They will be preparing the forecasts that are required for the New Markets process. Can you talk about the work Novogradac will be performing Mr. Kenter? Kenter responded, we work with them constantly on all of our deals with the group out of Dover, Ohio. They take the flow charts and blow out every piece of it and usually ends up being a 90-100 page model. They will do agreed upon procedures based on any number of different items specific to the project. We want them engaged sooner rather than later. We want them to have a head start on that model given the number of potential CDEs and investors on this deal. Cabias added that we have monthly Board meetings where the term sheets can be approved or, if needed, a special meeting of the Board can be called in order to provide that approval. I will add that just like Crescent Growth Capital and Novogradac, our accountants will be engaging the Foundation directly. This is our standard practice. The Library staff will be attending the Foundation's next Board Meeting on November 16th to recommend the Board of Directors approve an engagement between the Foundation and Novogradac. Are there any questions?

Chair Rogers asked, could you inform the Board concerning once those transfers are made into the Foundation's account, how construction expenses are paid? Cabias responded that once the transfer is made to the Foundation, it is traditionally controlled or managed by the District. We work closely with the contractors and the construction managers so the District actually makes that expenditure along the way when construction starts. Then that is reimbursed by the New Market structure; one of our New Markets entities. Chair Rogers added, I just wanted to hear that response with Board members going through the first process and assuring them that all those things are covered and we are following the same processing protocols as the two previous deals in this relationship.

Trustee Sanchez asked is there are any signatures necessary from the Foundation? Kenter said he would check and find out. Cabias added that from memory, the CFO of the District signs quite a few of the documents, most of them, but we will definitely provide that information and get verification. Chair Rogers responded that whatever sort of commitments that need to come from the Foundation or responsibilities should be laid out clearly when you do the presentation at their Board meeting. Cabias advised he would do so. Chair Rogers asked if there were any additional questions and there were none. Cabias thanked Kenter for the detailed update. Kenter replied, thank you for having me.

Chair Rogers moved on to Agenda Item IV.B, which is discussion and possible Committee action regarding a recommendation to accept Fiscal Year 2022-2023 Audit Report and acceptance of the Fiscal Year 2022-2023 Audit at the Board of Trustees' meeting on November 9, 2023. Floresto, I presume you will be taking the lead on this one.

Cabias began, it's that time of year again. With respect to the audit, it is McKay Hall, who is with HintonBurdick, our partner on our audit engagement. This is HintonBurdick's second year of auditing our financial statements. I want to acknowledge their professionalism and expertise in taking advantage of the synergies we have gained by one CPA firm performing audits on all of our entities. The Library District is also made up of other component units, which includes the Library District Foundation and two nonprofit corporations we discussed; the East Las Vegas QALICB and the Mesquite Library QALICB. Mr. Hall and his firm performed audits on all four of these entities. The efficiencies they gave to ensure that these audits were done timely was remarkable. I also want to thank our accounting manager, Martha Ford, who can take a lot of credit for ensuring that this audit process went smoothly. The audit is a reflection of the financial work that the District goes through throughout the year. With that, I will let Mr. Hall present the results of the audit.

Hall began by sharing his screen/PowerPoint presentation and said that even under the best of circumstances, an audit can be a bit of an interruption in the normal course of operations and it takes additional work and effort to get through. When you have staff changeovers it can be more so and the District team handled it with great aplomb. I give my commendation and express our gratitude there. This is a quick presentation on the Financial Audit for Fiscal Year 2023, running from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023. When we come in to perform a financial audit our objective is to obtain a reasonable assurance whether the financial statements, as a whole, are free from material misstatement. Material misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that individually or in aggregate, those misstatements would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user of the financial statements. When we come in, we are performing tests, analytics, confirmations with outside parties and tying the information to supporting documentation, as well as confidence and comfort that the information is being managed and recorded by your financial department. Audits are conducted according to the standards accepted by the United States of America as a special service district, as a local government unit, according to the standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. If, in the course of analysis, we note there is a situation that would make it highly likely that a material misstatement would be processed or not caught by the finance department, we call this a material weakness. If a material misstatement would be processed through without being caught, then that would give rise to a significant deficiency finding. We also advise The District where it could improve its efficiency and effectiveness.

Here are the results of the audit for this year. There is an Independent Auditor Report for the financial audits on pages 1 through 3 on your Annual Financial Report. We are happy to note and issue an unmodified or a clean report. No qualifications, no modifications. As a Board, you can rely on the information in those financial statements as materially correct based on our test work. There is also a report on compliance and internal controls over financial reporting on pages 63 through 64. We are happy to note that there were no material weaknesses or significant deficiencies for the District for Fiscal Year '23. I think it speaks volumes to the dedication and focus of your team. It is not uncommon for local governments to have a couple, just because people are people. It takes a level of focus, concern and dedication to make sure everything is done properly and there are no material weaknesses or significant deficiencies found. I commend your team there.

With the single audit, that audit entails additional procedures and test work for compliance related to major programs; your major funding sources with federal funding. We are happy to note that with the single audit for the District in Fiscal Year '23, there is an unmodified or a clean opinion.

There are a couple of key numbers you should watch over time. The total net position, equivalent to the District's equity, at the end of Fiscal Year '23 was 215 million. That number, as well as some detail, can be found on pages 14 and 15. Overall the net position increased by $19,821,637 this year. Unrestricted net position is a good one because that grows. It increased this year by $15,126,579 from a balance of about 18.5 million last year up to a balance of 33.6 million this year. Classification in net position is in a couple different groups. Net invested in Capital Assets, the District had a balance of 158 million as of June 20, 2023. Those are resources the District can use, but it is not liquid. Restricted, those are typically funds from grants or revenue source that have a very limited or specific purpose. The restricted fund balance net position for the District as of June 30, 2023 was 23.7 million. The unrestricted balance was 33.6 million. You want the net position to be increasing over time, so that is a good number to watch.

We have a five-year trend here on a graphic. This is the three components of equity broken out over the last five years. The top line with the diamonds is your net invested in Capital Assets and, as you can see, it is slowly trending upward and remaining fairly consistent. The red line across the middle with the squares, those are restricted net position, and, as you can see, they go up and down a little bit, but remain fairly consistent. The third line with the triangles is unrestricted net position. Five years ago the District was in a position of a deficit in the unrestricted net position. That has been addressed over the last five years and came up to 18.5 million in 2022 and has continued to increase so that is a good trend.

The next five-year trend we look at is the restricted and unrestricted cash and investments. The line across the bottom with squares is the restricted. The line across the top with the diamonds, that is unrestricted cash. Much like unrestricted net position, there is a lot more availability for the Board to decide exactly how those funds are used. Unrestricted funds have been increasing over the last five years.

Looking at the General Fund, which is the main operating account for the District. The General Fund is a government fund and its main purpose is not to generate profits, so over time the expectation is that the fund will break even. The District has been able to maintain its revenues and expenditures fairly consistently over the last couple of years.

The Foundation's funds are accumulated in providing resources to the District and we don't generally expect a large gap between revenues and expenses. We can see over the last five years The District has followed that trend.

The Capital Projects Fund is shown with the blue line with diamonds, that is transfers in. The red line with squares are expenditures. The blue line with triangles is the fund balance. Given the nature of the Capital Projects Fund, over time it should zero out. We typically see the resources being gathered and then spent down as the capital projects occur. That is the trend here. Given the projects coming up, we expect to see an increase in the fund balance up from prior years into Fiscal Year '23.

Hall asked if there were any questions? Trustee Sanchez asked if it was possible to have the PowerPoint presentation sent to the Trustees? Cabias responded that he would make sure the PowerPoint goes out to the Trustees and it is a part of the Agenda for the upcoming Board meeting. McKay Hall will be in attendance to answer any questions. Chair Rogers added, if it is not already a part of the Board packet, then we should share it with the Board members, especially those who might be interested in our audit result. Cabias responded by saying it is also available in Diligent. Hall ended the presentation by saying if there were any additional questions, their contact information is on the presentation.

Chair Rogers gave a shout out to the team adding this is the best you can get in terms of an audit result. We appreciate the attention to detail ensuring that we are in compliance in all of our dealings.

Chair Rogers read the Motion to recommend acceptance of the Fiscal Year 2022-2023 Audit as presented by the auditors at the Board of Trustees meeting on November 9, 2023. Chair Waugh so moved. Trustee Benavidez seconded. All Board Members were in agreement and none opposed. Motion carried.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Board of Trustees through Kelvin Watson, Executive Director

FROM: Betsy Ward, Branding and Marketing Director

DATE: December 31, 2023

SUBJECT: Branding & Marketing Activity Report, January 2024

This memorandum reports on the Branding and Marketing Department's (BAM) activities and project updates for December and analytics compiled from November 1-30, 2023.

Powerful Platforms

West Las Vegas Library Groundbreaking & 50th Anniversary Celebration

Due to the tragic events that occurred at the UNLV campus on December 6, the Library District postponed the West Las Vegas Library groundbreaking ceremony, which was scheduled for December 11. The BAM team:

- Created messaging in support of the UNLV community, which was posted on all social media channels.
- Worked with Executive Director Kelvin Watson to create messaging, which was used to notify speakers, invitees, partners, the community, and the news media regarding the event postponement.
- Began reviewing potential viable new dates in February-March with Kelvin Watson, General Services Director John Vino, and Development & Government Affairs Director JoAnn Prevetti, based on availability of speakers, other major scheduled events in the community, vendor availability, and other logistics.

Communico Attend

BAM has worked closely with Library Operations Director Leo Segura, Community Engagement Director Matt McNally & Chief Information & Technology Officer Al Prendergast to migrate the Library District's events calendar from BiblioCommons over to Communico Attend. This new software will allow the Library District to provide our customers with more consistency across our event listings on the website, and it includes dynamic new features like a branded printable and emailable brochure, that both customers and staff can use. To save staff time, BAM will create approved event templates and pre-sized images for them to choose from to promote recurring events and programs, along with monthly Board Meetings.

Training for nearly 200 Library District staff took place at the Windmill Library Service Center from November 29 to December 1, which was led by Communico Senior Partnerships Director Marcie Schneider and BAM Senior Digital Content Specialist Ryan Simoneau. Multimedia Marketing Specialist Jim Rose filmed each training session and will edit dedicated training videos that will be added to Voyager for staff to use as training and refresher courses. BAM will provide ongoing staff training for Communico Attend; the 2024 dates have been posted to Voyager.

The migration over to Communico Attend officially took place on Wednesday, December 6. The new user settings will allow the Library District to have better quality control over the 30,000+ events that occur annually. The structure divides the tasks into three roles:

 Administrators: These are LO/CE senior staff, who are responsible for assigning their direct reports into the following two User Settings:

Branding and Marketing Report
Page 3

- Event Creators: These staff create event listings for the branches where they have been assigned access by the Administrators. After an event is created, it is then sent to the Event Publishers for review.
- Event Publishers: These staff members review all submitted events for their assigned branches to ensure spelling/grammar accuracy and that the Library District's Brand Guidelines (as outlined in the Free To Be Brand Book) are being followed. If edits are needed, the Publishers send the event listing back to the Event Creators for corrections. This process continues until the event/program is error-free, so that the item can be published on the website.

Communico Attend will also seamlessly integrate into the Library District's forthcoming app, which is referred to as Communico Connect by the vendor. BAM is working on a branded name for the app, and the design will be tailored to fit Library District standards. This will be another powerful communications tool, which BAM will manage and pair with our website to help our customers easily find Library District events, services, and resources. A public launch is planned for Q1 2024, and the app will be freely available from the leading app stores on Google and Apple.

BAM will continue to provide additional updates on Communico Attend and the app in future Board Reports.

Powerful Partnerships

Sunrise Hospital Partnership

My First Library

BAM is proud to unveil, along with our partners Community Engagement Director Matt McNally and Project Manager Sherry Walker, this unique new outreach tool, that we have been telling you about for several months. This incredibly cute and highly educational newborn gift box will introduce the library's many wonders to new mothers and family caregivers, in the Sunrise Hospital maternity unit.

Barbershop Books

The Barbershop Books program is a new partnership the Kelvin Watson has brought to the Library District, as the Super Bowl prepares to take over Las Vegas in February. The program uses the community and camaraderie that children feel in their local barbershop to encourage the sense of joy, adventure, and discovery that come from reading books.

The Library District is working with Barbershop Books to create libraries with culturally relevant content in select community barbershops, and our library staff will train barbers on ways to engage with kids about what they are reading. BAM is working with the LO and CE departments to create communications around this unique national program, which was covered by CNN in July 2023: https://amp-cnn-com.cdn.ampproject.org/c/s/amp.cnn.com/cnn/2023/07/27/us/new-york-city-reading-books-library-barbershop-cnnheroes/index.html

This exciting and innovative outreach program will launch on February 7 at Clark County Library, in a special event being held exclusively for 150 children from the Boys & Girls Clubs, offering free haircuts and much more. Additional details to come!

RTC Anytime Library Partnership Update

In 2021, the Library District launched a partnership program with the RTC to provide bus riders with instant access to the library's online resources using free onboard WiFi on 400+ buses. Once bus riders download our free app, they can immediately begin borrowing eBooks, eAudiobooks, and magazines at no cost – on the bus, at home, or anywhere on the go. The service is also available to Las Vegas tourism visitors, who can receive temporary access via a seven-day pass.

Since launching this program with the RTC, some 25,000 customers have checked out 369,000 digital materials. Additionally, the program received the 2021 ALA Library of the Future Award; the RUSA Best Emerging Technology Award; and the Urban Libraries Council Top Innovators Honorable Mention.

We are happy to report that this successful partnership has been renewed and BAM is updating advertising inside all city buses, on 50 bus shelters, and with a wrap on a 60-foot bus. The new ads, bus shelters, and bus wraps will be posted in January.

Powerful Programs

2024 Winter Reading Challenge

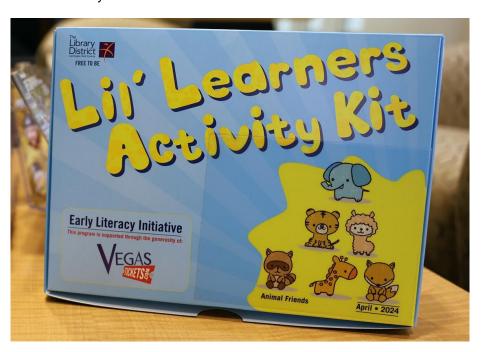

BAM prepared for the 2024 Winter Reading Challenge with the following promotional activities, which will take place January 2-31, 2024:

- Created a new logo and theme celebrating Southern Nevada's indigenous animals with the tagline "Go Wild for Reading this Winter."
- Created new promotional assets for the website and social media platforms.
- Updated the website landing page with full details about this year's program.
- Wrote promotional posts in Library Highlights eNewsletter
- · Placed select print advertising
- Scheduled social media posts to run throughout January
- Wrote and pitched news releases in English and Spanish to the media

Little Learners Program

Enterprise Library's Little Learners literacy and activities program recently received support from Vegas Tickets in the form of a donation to the Library District Foundation. BAM is promoting the program and announcing the donation through the following activities:

- Created new branding, logo, and graphics.
- Designed (another!) cute, customized box to house educational materials that will span four months of fun learning for little ones.
- Coordinated with Vegas Tickets' PR firm Purdue Marion on a media event to announce the donation, to include a news release and photo opp at Enterprise Library on January 9.

Google AdWords Grant Update

- Google AdWords is Google's online advertising platform, in which advertisers bid on popular keywords & search phrases for their clickable text-based ads to appear in Google's search results. The Foundation and the Library District have received a grant from Google for up to $10,000 per month in Google AdWords credits.
- Nonprofit Megaphone is the Library District's agency of record that works with Google to manage our monthly grant and helps us to optimize designated keywords that are selected from Library District and Foundation priorities promoted on TheLibraryDistrict.org.
- These monthly Google Grant campaigns help to increase our overall Google SEO and drive more qualified traffic to our website. When people conduct relevant searches on Google that incorporate our designated keywords, the Google AdWords campaign entices them to click on Library District search results, thereby increasing the opportunity for discovery of our programs and services.
- View the Google Studio Data Report updates in real-time for all our current Google Grant Google AdWords campaigns.
- Conversation tracking for priority Google AdWords campaigns (November 2023):

- During November, we set another new record with our campaign ads, which generated 4,122 clicks and 10,635 impressions, resulting in a record CTR of 38.76%. The Library District continues to be one of NPM's top-performing accounts as the network average is only 3%, and the Google requirement is 5%. This means that Google is showing our ads to the right people and that the content is relevant and intriguing enough for users to click on our ads.
- Our ad impressions top percentage increased in November to 94.11%. This means that more than 94% of the time, our ads are appearing in the top 1 or 2 spots above the Google organic search results for these relevant user keyword searches, which is fantastic.
- Ads to promote Native American Heritage Month generated a 5% CTR.
- Ads to help promote the Annual Women's Suit Donation program (October 16 November 9) received 92 impressions and a CTR of 10.87%.
- 98 people successfully submitted an application for an eCard from clicking our ads.
- The number of people looking for their local library branch continued to remain strong, with ads in that campaign driving 2,507 clicks in November.
- Our top user keyword search for the month was "Local Library", with 686 people seeing Google Grant ads after making a search using these keywords. This helped generate 291 qualified clicks on the ads for a keyword CTR of 42.42%.

Notes: Our Total Followers were up, but our other key Facebook analytics were down month-over-month as there was not a District-wide program like TeenTober to promote last month where we received more organic photos from staff to post. We did see year-over-year gains across all our key analytics which was great to see as there is more competing for our customers attention during the holiday months. While this social media platform is tougher to increase organic user engagement on, brand submitted content greatly helps with this and Facebook remains an important communication and promotional tool as it is the largest social media channel. We continue to create Facebook Events for select CE/LO programs which help increase the awareness and attendance for these events.

Notes: We increased our Total Followers and Organic Impressions month-over-month, but we were down in our other key analytics on this social media platform. While we did see year-over-year gains across all of the key analytics, this social media platform will continue to be closely monitored in 2024 to see how our analytics may continue to be affected as more users could opt to not engage on or leave this social media platform due to the volatile leadership of Elon Musk which have affected the user experience. We continue to share links to upcoming CE/LO events and priority landing pages on our website, along with sharing local and national resources, spotlighting the Library District's powerful partnerships, plus timely and diverse staff lists created by the website content committee.

Notes: With less branch-submitted content than we received during the previous month to help promote TeenTober, we dipped month-over-month in our Instagram Analytics with the exception of Total Followers. We were encouraged to see year-over-year gains in Total Followers and User Engagement. BAM continues to utilize the IG Stories feature to promote the weekly priority events and programs happening across the Library District using the designed promotional graphics. BAM also provides monthly social media training classes for branch staff and is actively working with them to create more organic photos and videos to help promote their upcoming events/programs. This content performs better on this social media platform as compared to sharing digital versions of promotional flyers.

Notes: We were down in all of our key LinkedIn analytics month-over-month. BAM continues to share Library District news and partnership updates, plus the latest job openings provided by HR on this important professional networking channel. As LinkedIn is primarily used for employment and career networking, our monthly analytics on this platform will fluctuate based on the monthly content shared and may not be as robust as our primary social media channels. However, the updates we share on this platform connect with a more targeted audience, including community partners, library industry professionals, Library District employees, and jobseekers.

Notes: We increased our Total Channel Subscribers, Total Channel Watch Time and Average View Duration, but we slightly down in Total Impressions. We were encouraged to see year-over-year increases across the board. The creation of new virtual programming content and uploading it consistently will continue to be critical to our sustained growth in the coming year on this important social media platform as uploading video content regularly is prioritized by YouTube's algorithm.

Notes: We were slightly down in our key website analytics month-over-month as there was not a District-wide program happening like TeenTober or Library Card Sign-Up Month as we promoted in October and September to help drive more users to TheLibraryDistrict.org. As the holiday season approaches, there is more competing for our customer's attention and more vacations take place which will decrease website traffic.

Universal Google Analytics was officially sunset on July 1, 2023, and we have migrated to the new GA4 (Google Analytics 4) Analytics. Some of Google's reporting terminology has changed and BAM is now reporting on the updated analytics.

Per the new GA4 reporting, the following Google Analytics terminology has changed from our previous Board Reports:

- Unique Visitors will be reported as "Unique Users"
- Unique Homepage Views will be reported as "Unique Views"
- Total User Sessions will be reported as "Engaged Sessions"
- Average User Sessions will be reported as "Engaged Sessions Per User"
- Average Session Duration will be reported as "Average Engagement Time"

This report provides an overview of District-wide Community Engagement division initiatives including adult literacy services, art gallery services, outreach services, project management, programming and venues services, adult services administration, and youth services administration. This report covers a one-month period of staff activity from November 1, 2023 – November 30, 2023.

In response to an inquiry at the December 14 Board of Trustees meeting, The Library District presented the 15th Annual Vegas Valley Comic Book Festival (VVCBF) at Clark County Library on Saturday, November 4 from 9:30a-4:30p. It is the longest running comic event in Southern Nevada. Staff estimate that approximately 3,000 customers attended the program.

The event featured presentations, workshops, cosplay, and a vendor courtyard filled with comic book stores. Customers could engage with local and national comic book creators and community craft artisans in the Artist Alley. The program also featured crafts, face painting, food trucks, a documentary film from PBS SoCal KCET titled Artbound Love and Rockets: The Great American Comic Book, and live music. The program required 16 Library District staff to manage operations on the festival day using support from 16 volunteers including 12 from the Library District and local comic book community, and 4 from Amazon. REPORTED SUCCESS STORIES IN OCTOBER

"I had a Walker ES fourth grader come in for homework help this week! I left one of the library's fullpage flyers about Homework Help on the front counter in the Walker office a week ago for parents to see. I also had a text conversation with one of my former colleagues, a fourth grade teacher, about the program. I don't know which route brought this student in, but I was really happy to see a check-in slip with "Walker" written as the student's school!"

- Tutor at Whitney Library

"A kid scored 20% on a math test and after reviewing it together retook the test and mom came to tell me he scored 100% on retake and was really thankful."

- Tutor at Enterprise Library

"After working with the math tutor for several days, two students reported that they earned A's on their comprehensive exam."

- Tutor at Centennial Hills Library

"The new tutors doing great was one. And we had a girl write a really nice message about a tutor and even wrote "do not erase" on the board. It was really sweet."

MEMORANDUM

TO: Board of Trustees through Kelvin Watson, Executive Director

FROM: Floresto Cabias, Chief Financial Officer

DATE: December 31, 2023

SUBJECT: Financial Services Report, January 2024

Enclosed are the budget status reports for December 2023. General fund revenues show 44% of budgeted revenues collected.

Property Tax Revenues

As of December 8, 2023, the District collected $33.0M in property taxes, which is on pace to meet budget expectations. Property taxes are assessed on a fiscal year basis beginning on July 1.

Consolidated Sales Tax Revenues (CTX)

The CTX shows 25% collected so far this fiscal year. The State of Nevada distributes CTX collections two months after the month of collection.

The most recent CTX received by the District on November 30, 2023, represents CTX from the month of September 2023. The $2.7M collected is 10% lower than the amount collected for the same month last fiscal year. In September 2022, events taking place in Las Vegas appeared to have caused an outsized amount of consumer spending. The amount collected in September 2023, returns to the expected trend. Thus, although the September 2023 CTX is 10% lower than September 2022, the 2023 amount is 8% higher than September 2021. See the charts below showing historical CTX trends.

Expenditures

The General Fund has spent 38% of the allocated budget for FY 2024. The percentage spent so far is consistent with prior years. See the summary of expenditures by department in the reports below.

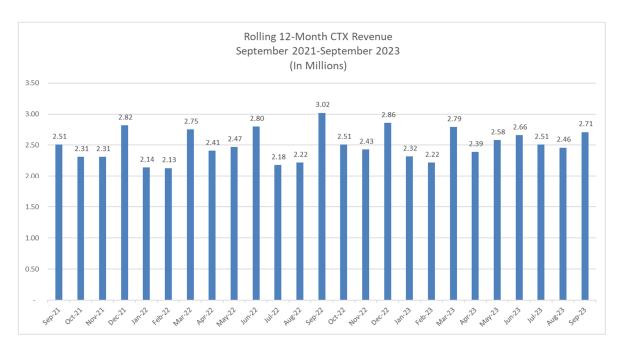

Ending Fund Balance

Based on revenue and expenditure activity so far in FY 2024, staff expects to maintain an ending fund balance for FY 2024 that is 20% of budgeted expenditures, while also transferring $16.0M from the General Fund to the Capital Projects Fund.

Staff will be available to answer questions.
