

Felipe A. Ortiz

Felipe A. Ortiz has played a pivotal role during his long tenure of service for the Las Vegas-Clark County Library District Board of Trustees, as a former chair and vice-chair, and currently, as a member. His leadership and strategic vision have contributed to the Library District's success in providing valuable resources and services to the community.

A dedicated professional, who has made significant contributions to the fields of government and public administration, Felipe currently serves as the Chief Compliance Investigator for the Nevada Equal Rights Commission. He previously retired from service as a U.S. Probation Officer.

Besides his work with the Library District, Felipe also serves on the Officer Down board, showcasing his dedication to supporting law enforcement personnel, as well as the Professional Law Enforcement Association (PLEA) board, where he contributes to the advancement of law enforcement standards and practices. His multifaceted involvement in community service, advocacy, and public safety, showcases the positive impact that he has on the lives of Southern Nevada residents.

Felipe earned a Master's Degree in Public Administration from the Lee Business School at UNLV, and a Bachelor of Arts in Social Work from Santa Fe University of Art and Design.