

Twin Flames Blends Music, Comedy & Thought-Provoking Stories

Join us as four-time Canadian Folk Music Award winners Twin Flames create sonic soundscapes using Indigenous spirit flutes, traditional drums, and Western instruments. Twin Flames is comprised of two talented performers, Jaaji and Chelsey June. Together, with their song-writing partner Settler, the three write songs delivered through a mix of English, French, and Inuttitut, the Indigenous dialect spoken in Northern Quebec. Concerts will be held at Clark County Library, West Charleston Library, and Windmill Library. Check the events calendar for dates and times. Free and open to the public. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis and may be limited.

Art Exhibit Inspires Individuals to Search for Your Own Light

Artist William Wilkerson uses paintings, drawings, and digital imagery to create "ILLUMINATIONS," an exhibition on display now through March 12 at West Charleston Library. Through his work, the former public-school teacher and author of the children's book "The Light in My Room," hopes to stimulate a conversation about the need for empathy, compassion, and understanding. For more details about "ILLUMINATIONS" and information about upcoming exhibitions, please visit the Gallery Exhibits page on our website.

Attention Pokemon Trainers! Join the Worldwide Anniversary Celebration

Fans of the legendary Pokemon dynasty are celebrating the series' 28th anniversary and you can join in the festivities on Pokemon Play Day at the Rainbow Library. Stop by for fun activities and catch, battle, and trade with other trainers on Pokemon Go, Pokemon Scarlet/Violet, and Pokemon the Trading Card Game. This event is free and open to the public. Learn more about Pokemon Play Day on our event calendar.
