

Learn Acrobatics, Juggling, Clowning Skills, and More at Social cirKISH Youth Workshop
 Teens and kids (ages 8+) are invited to join FREE circus workshops with Social cirKISH at East Las Vegas Library on January 23. Social cirKISH promotes mental, physical, emotional, psychological, and social development by exploring circus exercises and acts. These activities help increase self-awareness and acceptance through teamwork and collaboration. For more details and to register, visit the Social cirKISH Youth Workshop listing in our Events Calendar.

Celebrate & Support Our Local Arts Community at Two Upcoming Events

Clark County Library Authors & Artists Fair
 Discover new releases and unique works from over 80 local authors and artists at the Authors & Artists Fair. Stroll the marketplace featuring the authors' best sellers and new releases, attend a publishing panel discussion and writing and crafting workshops, and listen to chapter readings. For a full lineup of events and activities, visit our Events Calendar. Admission and all activities are free and open to the public.

Whitney Library Black Author Business Expo
 Join us for the Black Author Business Expo at Whitney Library on February 1 where the community can meet local authors and engage in important discussions around diverse storytelling. The event will include author talks, an open panel discussion, and storytimes. Admission and all activities are free and open to the public. To learn more, visit the Black Author Business Expo listing in our Events Calendar.
