

Cardholder Perk: Borrow Health Kits and Access Trusted Info

Stay on top of your health and wellbeing from the comfort of your own home with these FREE resources from the Library District.

- » Take charge of your health with a Health Kit, available to check out at no cost. Each kit includes a pulse oximeter, a non-contact infrared thermometer, and a wrist blood pressure monitor. All devices come with user manuals and batteries, so you can start using them right away—no setup needed. Available now at a library branch near you.
- » Looking for reliable health information? Explore online resources like Health Source: Consumer Edition and the Health & Wellness Resource Center for access to trusted medical journals, magazines, reference books, and encyclopedias—all available with your library card. You can also visit the Health & Wellness page on the Library District website to explore videos, eBooks, events, book clubs, curated staff lists, and more.
