Meet and collaborate monthly with other teens by leading discussions about teen programming and projects at Centennial Hills Library.

Teen Crafternoon Gift-Making Sesh

Thursday, Dec. 18 at 4:30pm

ages 11-17

Use our arts and crafts supplies to make gifts or treat-yo-self! We will be putting out some past creations and ideas for you to use in this open art and crafts crafternoon!

Winter Break Drop-In

Need something to do during winter break?

Stop by the Teen Zone to crochet, draw, or maybe even create a unique project!

December 23rd, 26th, 27th, 30th, 31st and January 2nd and 3rd!

Other Library Programs for Tweens and Families

Family DnD Night

Thursday Dec. 4 3:30-5:00pm

ages 3+

Get ready to roll! Bring your family for this Dungeons & Dragons inspired program. Face off against some big bosses and gather up materials to make your own special craft to take home!

The Wild Robot movie and craft

Tuesday, Dec. 9 at 4:30 p.m.

ages 8-13

Let's watch The Wild Robot and get creative with a fun, themed craft afterward! Join us for an afternoon of adventure as we follow Roz the robot's heartwarming journey.

K-Pop Demon Hunters Fandom

Tuesday, Dec. 18 at 4:30 p.m.

ages 8-13

Do you love Huntrix? Or stan Saja Boys? Celebrate your fandom with K-pop inspired crafts and face off against other fans in a zany trivia game.

Ongoing Teen Activities

In the Loop

Sunday, Dec. 7 & Dec. 21 at 10:30am

Ages 13+

Join us for In the Loop! Come crochet, knit, or practice other needlecrafts with fellow crafters. Limited instruction is available for crochet. Come unwind with us!

MATS Crochet Meet-up

Sunday, Dec. 14 at 1:30 p.m.

Ages 13+

We're upcycling unused plastic bags that are salvaged into bed mats for the homeless living on the street. Presented in partnership with The Mats Project.

Coloring and Journaling

Saturday, Dec. 13 and 27 at 2:00pm

Ages 13+

Escape and relax at the library! We'll supply all the coloring pages, journaling prompts, and drawing supplies. This is a drop-in style event, so feel free to come and go. All supplies will be provided.
