Sunday Funday

Sunday's are for hanging out, playing games, and being low key. Come chill with us.

Chisme Saturday

Join us for Chisme Saturday at the BBTC! Spill the latest tea and enjoy some fun chat with friends. Whether it's books, movies, or just life, it's the perfect place to share and unwind.

Freeplay Friday

Today is the day to indulge in some fun times with board games and more!

Media Shorts

On Wednesdays, we will be focusing on the many aspects of filmmaking and podcasting. Let your passion be your guide and learn how to transform your vision into art.

STEAM Team

Together let's create a some really cool STEAM stuff. Work alongside staff and a doctoral robotics candidate as we learn the amazing world of STEAM!

Art Studio

We will host an open lab to craft and create. Come watch the demo and give it a try. So be sure to stop by!

Harry Styles Listening Party

We belong together — listening and crafting to celebrate the release of Harry Styles' new album, Kiss All the Time, Disco Occasionally! Come ready to disco, talk, and decorate your own pair of sunglasses. Whiles supplies last.

BTS Listening Party

ARMY, it's comeback time! Join us in the Teen Lounge for a celebration of BTS' newest album, Arirang!

Come and enjoy a photocard decorating station, play themed Bingo, and connect with fellow fans!

GenZ Civic Talk

We're hosting youth-led conversations where teens explore civic issues that shape their lives. Your voice will be part of a national initiative helping libraries and media better understand youth perspectives.

Registration required and permission form required.

GSA: Gay-Straight Alliance

Discussions, activities and projects based around equality. Whether part of the community or ally, we offer everyone a safe space to be themselves.

Music Production 101

Learn the basics of music production from a pro and start creating your own sound in this hands-on workshop for aspiring teen artists. Whether you're a total beginner or just want to fine-tune your skills, this is your backstage pass to making music. Space is limited, first come first serve.
