

Discover the Stories Behind History's Influential Women

Every March, the Library District celebrates Women's History Month by highlighting the stories, voices, and achievements of extraordinary women, past and present. From biographies and documentaries to music, novels, films, art exhibitions, and special programs, our collections are filled with works inspired by bold thinkers, fearless leaders, groundbreaking artists, and everyday changemakers.

Whether you're revisiting a classic book or movie, discovering a new favorite author, or attending a program that spotlights women's contributions, our libraries are a wonderful world of discovery! Check out our website, or visit a library near you, to learn all of the ways you can celebrate Women's History Month.

Markets, Carnivals & Fairs, Oh My!

Our libraries are pulling out the stops for three unique events in March.

Carnival Day at Meadows Library

Join us on Saturday, March 7 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. for face painting, balloon artists, games, snacks, and crafts for all ages.

Rainbow Library's Night Market!

Come for the shopping, stay for the community on Wednesday, March 18 from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Enjoy artisan craft and food vendors, book sales, and live music on our outdoor stage. At 5:30 p.m., those ages 17+ can Sip and Craft - enjoy a mocktail while creating a bath bomb and sugar scrub.

Mystic Fair at Windmill Library

It's a mind, body, and spirit experience for all ages. Join us on Saturday, March 28 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. This annual favorite event will explore the magical benefits of Reiki, Shamanic practices, and a Seraphim Circle, plus tarot card, palms, and psychic readings. Kids' activities include henna art and face painting. New this year are Chakra Dance, White Magic, Kitchen Witchery, and a séance.
