

Celebrate America's 250th Birthday at the Library!

America's 250th birthday is right around the corner, and the Library District is marking this milestone with FREE performances, workshops, and community events that celebrate the stories, music, and ideas that have shaped our nation.

“What the Constitution Means to Me” by Heidi Schreck
Performed by A Public Fit Theatre Company, this award-winning play blends humor, a memoir, and civic engagement into a moving look at the U.S. Constitution and its impact on generations of Americans. See it July 3 at Clark County Library and July 11 at Windmill Library.
