

Look to the Library District for cool, live entertainment to fill up your summer calendar.
Coming up:

Amelia Day delivers melody-driven songs packed with alt-rock grit, pop-bright hooks, and swooning keyboards. Her powerhouse vocals have drawn comparisons to Brandi Carlile, Norah Jones, and Alanis Morissette, while her heartfelt storytelling, raw delivery, and unforgettable melodies feel both fresh and familiar.

Sunday, July 19 at 2 p.m. • Clark County Library

This iconic local Modern Dance Festival carries on the legacy of co-founders Kelly Roth and Kyla Quintero. Their vision of bringing dance as an art form to as many people as possible continues this year as artists from across the country join local dance makers to present two master classes and three distinct performances that are sure to keep audiences spellbound.

July 24 – 25 • Times Vary • Summerlin Library

Wielding a sound that would turn classical music scholars to stone, these four folk musicians are reimagining the Western string quartet. Drawing from Celtic, Scandinavian, Middle Eastern, European, and American musical traditions, the group blends original compositions, engaging stories, and one-of-a-kind stringed instruments to create a must-see live performance.

Saturday, July 25 at 4:30 p.m. • Clark County Library

Drawing inspiration from legends like Joe Cocker, The Beatles, and Tom Petty, while channeling the raw energy of Soundgarden, Nathaniel Rateliff, and Foo Fighters, Juadines delivers a sound that's both nostalgic and electrifyingly fresh. Expect a setlist packed with genuine rock originals infused with their signature style—where funk rhythms, punk edge, blues grit, and Motown soul collide.

Friday, July 31 at 7 p.m. • Windmill Library
